2020 Social Sciences Department Vision @TE KŪITI HIGH SCHOOL

Kia ora koutou.

I arrived at the beginning of Term 4 to take up the position of Head of Department in the Social Sciences. To introduce myself:

Ko Ngongotaha te Maunga

Ko Kaituna te Awa

Ko Matilda Wattenbach te Waka

Ko Ngati Pakeha te Iwi Ko Thomas Cromwell te Tangata

Ko Barry Hill tōku Pāpa

Ko Bobbie Aubertin tōku Māma

Ko Chris Hill tōku Ingoa

My vision for the Social Sciences at Te Kuiti High School in 2020 is one in which we are connected to our communities, our marae and our Maniapoto heritage. Building upon this foundation, we can then explore our links to Hawaiki, Polynesia, Europe, Asia and beyond. Year 9 units will include natural disasters in Aotearoa, living sustainably in the 21st century, and famous New Zealanders.

Year 10 units will include the Treaty of Waitangi, Human Rights, the NZ National Identity, and the future of employment. During the Tokyo Olympics both year levels will study Olympic history and NZ Olympic heroes, while during the General Election both year levels will study democracy, capitalism and how NZ is governed.

In the senior school students will have the opportunity to study 18th century contact between Māori and Pākehā, the six New Zealand Company colonies and the 1863/4 invasion of the Waikato. Other topics offered will include Palestine/Israel, the American Revolution and the French Revolution. Tourism students will gain unit standard credits that lead directly to a Pathway in our most important industry, which grosses over $40 Billion per year.

My vision for the department is encapsulated in the whakatauki:

Te Kūititanga o Ngāti Maniapoto

Te Kūititanga o ngā maunga

Te Kūititanga o ngā whakaaro

In the stronghold of the tribe of Maniapoto

Within the shelter of converging mountains

Where the discussion takes place, and the decisions are made
